

Description

- Main Gui Program Controller – Controls the simulation, initializes Person types
- Input State – Encapsulates input from the text configuration file read in through the command line in standard input. Also takes keyboard inputs to activate various features.
- World – Manages person object types
- Gui Display – Updates with information / dots representing people provided by the Main GUI Program Controller loop